 Join us for a free-range night at the library with fresh food, organic conversation, and a few locally grown GMOs (Great Music Offerings). Try your luck with the new card-catalog prize pull and check out our famous themed-basket fundraiser. Special guest: Robin Sloan, author of this year's Read Across Lawrence pick, Sourdough. Attire is casual and you can make your reservations today at LPLafterhours.com. All proceeds benefit LPL.

AN AFTERNOON WITH ROBIN SLOAN
SUN | Mar 3 | 2-3:30 PM
Liberty Hall
646 Massachusetts St. Lawrence, KS
 Robin Sloan, New York Times Best-selling author of 2012's Mr. Penumbra's 24-hour Bookstore, will talk about his most recent book, Sourdough as our capstone event for Read Across Lawrence 2019. Sourdough's Lois Clary is a software engineer at a San Francisco robotics company. She codes all day and collapses at night, her human contact limited to the two brothers who run the neighborhood hole-in-the-wall from which she orders dinner every evening. The brothers quickly close up shop due to visa issues, but they have one last delivery for Lois: their culture, the sourdough starter used to bake their bread. Lois finds herself in the company of a needy colony of microorganisms and soon she finds herself eating her own bread, then expanding her baking horizons where a whole new world opens up. The Raven Book Store will sell copies of Sloan's work, and a signing will follow the talk.

AUTHOR TALK: PETER HELLER
SUN | Mar 10 | 3-4:30 PM
Auditorium
 The Raven Book Store and Lawrence Public Library present Peter Heller and his newest novel, The River. From the best-selling author of The Dog Stars, The River is the story of Wynn and Jack, best friends since freshman orientation and bonded by their shared love of mountains, books, and fishing. When they decide to canoe the Maskwa River in northern Canada, they anticipate long days of leisurely paddling and picking blueberries, nights of stargazing and reading paperback Westerns. But a wildfire making its way across the forest adds unexpected urgency to the journey. When they hear a man and woman arguing on the fog-shrouded riverbank and decide to warn them about the fire, their search for the pair turns up no one. The next day a man appears on the river, paddling alone. Is this the man they heard? Where is the woman? From this charged beginning, master storyteller Peter Heller unspools a headlong, heart-pounding story of wilderness survival. The Raven Book Store will sell copies of Heller's books and a signing will follow the talk.

SUBTERRANEAN LAWRENCE
All ages
SUN | Mar 31 | 1:30-2:30 PM
