1855 – Library is enhanced by a flatboat load of books donated by Mr. Amos Lawrence, namesake of the town. Bylaws of library states that two books could be borrowed at a time for two weeks. Overdue charges are $.25 a week.

1863 – The library is destroyed in William Quantrill’s raid of Lawrence.

1865 – J. S. Boughton restarts a circulating library at 735 Massachusetts Street. Books were loaned for a fee of $.10 per week or a yearly ticket could be purchased for $5.

Peter Emery leads a successful effort to obtain a grant from Mr. Andrew Carnegie to build an exclusive structure for the library, pending voter approval of criteria. City must agree to guarantee that the library will be a free public library and provide yearly maintenance. A grant of $27,500 is awarded.

1903 – Voters overwhelmingly approve library proposal.

1904 – Two lots on the corner of 9th & Vermont Streets donated by Mrs. C. P. Grovener for site of library. Building is completed and opened to the public on December 26th in the midst of a winter storm.

2. A complete record of actions taken by the Board. All motions shall be recorded exactly as stated and show whether adopted or rejected.

Checks shall be signed by the Chair and the Secretary/Treasurer, or by such other designated Board members in the absence of either of the above officers. At least one original signature shall appear on all checks. Whenever these Bylaws require a signature, an electronic signature satisfies that requirement if the Board has approved the payment and the document has not been modified since the signature was affixed. An electronic signature is defined as a signature created, transmitted, received, or stored by electronic means. The Secretary/Treasurer shall see that an accurate record is kept of all monies received and disbursed. Monthly financial reports shall be made to the Board. Article XI – Political Activity

The Lawrence Public Library obtains its funding in large part from the City of Lawrence, Kansas, see Charter Ordinance No. 16 of the City of Lawrence, Kansas. Members of the Lawrence Public Library Board of Trustees must be sensitive to the possibility that their political activity may jeopardize this funding. Accordingly, the Trustees should abide by the following Political Activity Policy.

Although a Board member may, in his or her individual capacity, publicly endorse candidates for public office or ballot measures, no board member should use the name of the Lawrence Public Library in conjunction with such an endorsement, nor otherwise intentionally imply that the Lawrence Public Library supports a given candidate for public office or ballot measure.

No Board member should become a candidate for city elective office or hold city elective office without first resigning from the Board. A Board member is considered to be a candidate for city elective office once he or she meets all statutory requirements to qualify as a candidate.
